A sampling of publicity and promotional materials produced by the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum, as well as press clippings and other reports and reviews to document the ability of the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum to produce and carry out a quality project or activity.

Section A: the members of the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum had repaired the tower clock of Carbondale City Hall;

Section B: the members of the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum produced and presented to the general public a highly successful lecture and film series in Carbondale City Hall during Carbondale's Pioneer Days, August 23-27, 1982; the members, in addition, produced and presented, on February 17, 1983, the first lecture in the 1983 series in Marian Hall Auditorium, Saint Joseph's Hospital, Carbondale;

Section C: members of the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum designed and sewed a Carbondale City flag and presented it to the city of Carbondale at the Dignitaries' Luncheon at the beginning of Pioneer Days 1982;

Section D: the members of the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum restored, installed and rededicated a Carbondale Historical Marker in the plot of land next to Carbondale City Hall on September 25, 1982;

Section E: the members of the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum restored an unused room on the third floor of Carbondale City Hall in the period November 26, 1982--February 20, 1983; the restored room (Number 301) now serves as the Society's headquarters and as an exhibition gallery; in the period February 20--March 20, 1983, the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum sponsored and art exhibition in 301 Carbondale City Hall, entitled "An Exhibition of Photos from The Metro's 2nd Annual Photo Contest";

Section F: members of the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum were instrumental in having Carbondale City Hall placed on the National Register of Historic Places, as of January 6, 1983;

Section G: a copy of a promotional piece that was used by The Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall, Inc.;

Section H: a copy of the membership form that is presently used by the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum.